

Mark 1:40-2 (The Message)

⁴⁰ A leper came to him, begging on his knees, "If you want to, you can cleanse me."

⁴¹⁻⁴³ Deeply moved, Jesus put out his hand, touched him, and said, "I want to. Be clean." Then and there the leprosy was gone, his skin smooth and healthy. Jesus dismissed him with strict orders: "Say nothing to anyone. Take the offering for cleansing that Moses prescribed and present yourself to the priest. This will validate your healing to the people."

In a spirit of contemplation, spend time looking at the painting.

- What do you notice?
- Where do you see yourself in the painting today?
- What do you think God might be saying to you through the painting? (Perhaps a word of comfort, healing, or challenge.)
- As you look at the painting, pray for an Amos partner embracing the marginalised in their community.
